

Yellow Mignonette

Redesa lutea L.

Yellow mignonette is not a native plant. While not on the Watch List, nor classified as a Noxious Weed in Colorado, it does spread and can be found in large numbers where it's not wanted. Recently, yellow mignonette was found in large quantities on Fort Carson property.

Following are photos of the plant in various forms.

Seed stalk

Leaf

Seed pod

Individual plants